Animal Welfare Science, Ethics and Law

- Welfare science measures the effect on animals of different situations and environments, from the animal's point of view

- Welfare ethics concerns how humans should treat animals

- Welfare law concerns how humans must treat animals

People before animals: Great Chain of Being?

- Is there a sliding scale of moral concern for different species?

- Place on scale depends on mental complexity

- May justify putting all people before all animals?

Spectrum of animal use